- Make a tangible difference in student's lives

INTERVIEWING

KEY NOTES:

- Before an interview, take the time to properly prepare yourself by taking stock of what you have to offer.
- When an interviewer asks a question, be sure to actively listen, pause (think of a good answer) and then respond.
- Don't ramble; it will make you seem unprepared.
- At the end of the interview, have a few questions prepared to ask the interviewer. Some examples are:
 - 1). "What skills do you look for in a top employee?"
 - 2). "What is a typical day like for this position?"
- Make sure you thank the interviewer at the end of the interview as well as send them a written thank you note in the mail.

INSTRUCTIONS:

- Go over "Practice Interview Questions" with students.

ASSIGNMENT:

- Break class into groups of two and have them role-play in an interview situation. The "applicant" and the "interviewer" must ask and answer questions as if they were actually applying for the job.
- Have them switch roles and practice.

PRACTICE INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

Question: "Why do you want to work here?"

- Tips for Answering:
- Research the company.
 - Match company attributes with yours.

Answer: "I share the same values when it comes to taking care of the customer, which would enable me to be a contributing part of the team."

Question: "What are your biggest accomplishments?"

- Tips for Answering:
- Before answering, think how it would benefit the employer.
 - Try to list team and individual accomplishments.

Answer: "I was proud to win salesperson of the month by focusing on customer service."

Answer: "I was proud to be part of the number one sales team for the year."

PRACTICE INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

Question: "Can you work under pressure?"

- Tips for Answering:
- Give more than a yes or no answer.
 - Give examples of how you worked under pressure.

Answer: "Yes, I thrive in that environment. I have encountered many deadline situations where the clock was ticking. However, with good planning and organization I was able to meet my goals."

Question: "What have you learned in school that can be useful on the job?"

- Tips for Answering:
- Relate courses that are relevant.
 - Relate extracurricular activities that are relevant.

Answer: "That's a great question, in my English class, I learned to communicate in a professional manner."

Answer: "Being a member of the basketball team, I have learned about teamwork, leadership and self discipline."

Question: "How well do you take direction?"

- Tips for Answering:
- Must show you are coachable and willing to be part of a team.

Answer: "I take direction well. As an example, my manager asked that I take some computer classes, so I enrolled the following week."

Question: "Describe a difficult challenge that you had to deal with?"

- Tips for Answering:
- Relate this to work or school, not personal.
 - Explain how you solved a problem.

Answer: "When I worked for the school paper, I had to decide what stories to print. I would explore my options, consult with my editor and come up with the best solution."

DRESS FOR SUCCESS

KEY NOTES:

- It is a fact that first round candidates can be quickly eliminated based upon how they dress for the interview.
- It is customary for the applicant to dress one or two levels up from the job they are applying for.

EX. People at a job site are wearing a dress shirt and slacks. You should wear a suit.

EX. People are wearing jeans and a t-shirt. You should wear slacks and a collared shirt. A tie is always a good idea.

- Grooming is just as important as finding the perfect outfit.

INSTRUCTIONS:

- Pass out the "Dress for Success Worksheet" (To make the work sheet 8.5" x 11" make one copy of this page, cut out the worksheet and enlarge on your copier 285%.
- Lecturing on this topic is optional or let students read it on their own.
